TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Integrated Network of Youths, Assam is a non-political youth association. The Association works for the holistic development of youths in fields of education, social and cultural. We as in particular have no specific political ideology. Members of INY can be associated with politics but on individual grounds. Opinions of individual members are not in anyway reflections of INY ideologies. Hence, it is thereby requested to all not to get misguided by statements / tweets/ posts/ comments of individual members. We owe no authority over individual's ideology, so cannot restrict anyone to have any ideology. However, to ensure our image not getting defamed by statements / tweets/ posts/ comments / activities of individuals members, we encourage our members to follow certain unwritten rules and non-allegiance to such brings in disciplinary actions against that individual.

In a nut shell, INY is not responsible for any statements / tweets/ posts/ comments / activities of individual members. However, subjected to the gravity of the situation and action, INY will surely act as per needed against the individual in certain cases.

Unless an official statement is made by INY in its website / social media handles, no other statement made by any member, even the members of the core committee shall hold good.

Regards,
INY Administration.
